Launch your career with an Advanced Modern Apprenticeship at DP World Southampton

Who is DP World Southampton?

DP World Southampton is the UK's number one performing container terminal for productivity and service. DP World Southampton is one of two terminals owned and operated by DP World in the UK including DP World London Gateway, on the River Thames estuary.

To support the terminal's continued growth, DP World Southampton needs a team of highly skilled engineering technicians to solve the challenges that arise as a result of a wide range of complex mechanical, electrical and electronic equipment.
